Have you dreamed about visiting Africa?
Do you have plans for the 2014 Maymester? Join Dr. Minuette Floyd, Associate Professor in the Department of Art, for her Capstone trip to Ghana: Understanding Perceptions Through Art and Art making. Students will have the opportunity to volunteer at the Children’s Art Village, attend print making workshops and explore historical castles, museums and national forests! For more information visit: http://www.sc.edu/capstonescholars/maymester.html

October is LGBTQ History Month!
There is a schedule packed with events to celebrate! To get things kicked off, please join the LGBTQ History Month Kick-Off on Monday, September 30th, from 11:00 AM-1:00 PM on the Russell House Patio. We will have great music, tons of food, and you'll be able to grab your copy of the LGBTQ History Month 2013 Calendar of Events!

Indian Night at P-Dining on Tuesday, October 1
Dr. Hal French will discuss his work on the Encyclopedia of Hinduism
