Happy Halloween!
Skill Builders are monthly leadership workshops sponsored by Student Organizations and Leadership Programs to assist student leaders in enhancing their leadership skills in order to work and lead effectively with others. Our next workshop is Public Speaking with Gavin Weiser, Assistant Director of Multicultural Student Affairs. Attendees will have the opportunity to receive instruction on how to be more effective and confident public speakers. This event will take place on Tuesday, November 12th from 5:30 PM-6:30PM in the Preston College Junior College Room.

Theater & Social Justice

There will be a two day (two part) workshop exploring Augusto Boal’s Theatre of the Oppressed techniques. Each workshop is designed to stand alone, but the work will complement and build on each other.

Workshop 1. Forum Theatre, Friday Nov. 1st from 3 to 6pm (Booker T. Washington Room 104) Focuses on techniques that explore the societal issues, and structural imbalances of power.

Workshop 2. Rainbow of Desire, Saturday Morning Nov. 2nd 9am to 12pm (Booker T. Washington Room 104) Focuses more on individual beliefs and desires that keep us from exercising our power.

These workshops are free and open to the public. To Attend, please RSVP by sending an email to Jason Craig at craigjd@mailbox.sc.edu. Include your name, phone number and the workshop(s) you plan to attend.

It is recommended you bring comfortable clothes and a bottle of water. Also, note that Booker T. Washington Building is across the street from the Blatt P.E. Center on Wheat Street and the classrooms are on the 1st floor.
