We're so happy to have our returners back and all of our new residents join the family!

The Preston Times is a weekly Monday newsletter for residents of Preston Residential College, designed to keep you in the loop on Preston and USC happenings.
What's happening in Preston this week?
This morning, August 16th, Preston residents met on the front steps to head to the First Year Reading Experience in the Colonial Life Arena. Maria Semple, author of the FYRE book, "Where'd ya go Bernadette," was the guest speaker, and students met with their U101 classes for the first time to discuss the book.
